CLOSE TO THE WIN... AND YET!

What was to be a jubilant mood turned sour and sad for residents of Anand Park as Anandban Club which was sealed by PMC was re-opened again. The government seal was broken following the court orders about which even PMC was not aware.

PRACHI BARI

It was to be a jubilant day for the residents of Anand Park in Aundh. Their perseverance and patience to get back the land on which Anandban Club now stands was finally going to be a reality but it was not to be.

Harish Vora, A Datye, Sant Mokha, Dhananjay Rau, Avinash Dandavate were feeling elated that finally they would get justice when Harish Vora received a call from the PMC building permission that they would be taking possession of the disputed Anandban Club.

The two acre open space of Anand Park Society in Aundh which had allegedly been resold by the developer and to S Kothari who now owns Anand Ban Club. The residents of the society were opposing the land deal and the club coming up there since 1993.

Cityplus had reported about the long battle of residents against Anandban Club in its previous editions.
